CORAM : J.N. PATEL AND

DATE : 1ST NOVEMBER, 2007

P.C.

1. Heard.

2. The respondent-husband has impugned the interim order passed by the Family Court in favour of the wife and child awarding maintenance in the sum of Rs, 3000/- to the applicant-wife and Rs. 2500/- per month to the minor son from the date of the application. We have gone through the impugned order and find that there is no error or illegality committed by the learned Judge of Family Court in awarding interim maintenance. The petition itself to take long time for adjudication. On the other hand, this Court is of prima facie view, that the interim maintenance is on lower side and cannot be said to be unreasonable. Therefore, we do not find any merit in the revision application and the same is dismissed.
